- New Bloomberg terminals in Investment Learning Center offer real-world experiences to students and others in EMU’s College of Business. These terminals allow students to obtain hands-on experience in being able to monitor and manage real-time financial data and earn their Bloomberg Market Concepts certification.
- Eastern Michigan University professor collaborates on project to make sacred places along the Texas Gulf Coast region more hurricane-proof.
- Detroit middle school girls put STEM skills to the test during Girls in Engineering Academy at Eastern Michigan University.
- Eastern Michigan University chapter of Beta Alpha Psi, a national accounting honors organization, honored as ‘superior’ for 21st consecutive year. The EMU chapter performs hundreds of hours of community service each semester, including work on behalf of other organizations such as Meals on Wheels, the Walk to Fight Cancer, Habitat for Humanity and Food Gatherers. In addition, the chapter again filled out the tax returns for low-income people in the Ypsilanti community, an annual activity for the club.
